

Friday to Sunday 6-8th November 2026 at Edinburgh Zoo

Friday 6th November:

Time	Title	Speaker
1330-1415	Part one: Is canine atopic dermatitis an immunologic disease, a skin barrier disease, or both?	Prof Thierry Olivry
1415-1500	Part two: Is canine atopic dermatitis an immunologic disease, a skin barrier disease, or both?	Prof Thierry Olivry
1500-1530	Coffee and exhibition	In the Gannet
1530 - 1615	Why is the skin barrier so important?	Dr Daniel Combarros
1615-1700	Human atopic dermatitis-pathogenesis and current treatment	Prof Sara Brown

Saturday 7th November:

In the morning there will be three approximate one hour sessions:

1. An undertaking certificate /considering a certificate and/or residency meet and greet.
2. Two sessions chaired by recognised Specialists on: No silly questions and Bring your cases.

Time	Title	Speaker
1330-1415	Skin barrier – how it started	Dr Daniel Combarros
1415-1500	Skin barrier – how is it going?	Dr Daniel Combarros
1500-1530	Coffee and exhibition	In the Gannet

1530 -1615	Feline atopic skin syndrome – clinical signs and diagnosis	Prof Ralf Mueller
1615-1700	Feline atopic skin syndrome – treatment options	Prof Ralf Mueller

Sunday 8th November:

Time	Title	Speaker
0900-0945	Considering behaviour in dermatological cases – stressors and behavioural first aid	Dr Kevin McPeake
0945-1030	Pitfalls and challenges of behaviour in dermatological cases – how we can help	Dr Kevin McPeake
1030-1100	Coffee and commercial exhibit
1100-1145	Part one: Molecular allergology	Prof Thierry Olivry
1145-1230	Part two: Molecular allergology	Prof Thierry Olivry
1230-1400	Lunch and commercial exhibit
1400-1445	Practicalities of immunotherapy	Prof Ralf Mueller
1445-1530	Mechanisms of actions and future outlook of immunotherapy	Prof Ralf Mueller
1530-1615	The microbiome in atopic dermatitis	Prof Tim Nuttall

Please note programme is subject to change without notification